

Gen. David McKiernan, commander of U.S. Army, Europe, thanks Renee Acosta, president and chief executive officer of Global Impact, for her presentation of almost $92,000 to be used by Army Family programs in Europe.

Photo by Kevin Koehler
7thAJMTC TSC Heidelberg

Family programs receive CFC donations

HEIDELBERG, Germany – The organization that handles the Department of Defense’s Combined Federal Campaign overseas efforts delivered nearly $92,000 for use by Army Family programs in Europe.

Ms. Renee Acosta, president and chief executive officer of Global Impact, presented a symbolic $91,705 check here June 19 to Gen. David McKiernan, commander of U.S. Army, Europe, representing the amount donated by USAREUR and Installation Management Command-Europe servicemembers and civilian employees to the Family Support and Youth Programs fund.

Unique to CFC-Overseas, FYOP is one way that contributors can give back to their communities overseas, said Constance Baker, director of CFC-Overseas for European Command and Central Command.

“The funds are distributed to the installation of origin and are used to support quality-of- life programs for servicemembers, DoD civilians and their families as the local commander deems appropriate and in accordance with appropriate service regulations,” Baker said.

“Additionally, no administrative costs are deducted from FSYP contributions.”